The Election Administration Manual for Wisconsin Municipalities explains absentee ballot procedures for one municipality's voting process.

1. The designated site shall be located as near as practicable to the office of the governing body of the municipality and where elected by the governing body of the municipality.

2. The governing body shall not later than 14 days prior to the time absentee ballots are available designate an absentee ballot site. Wise, Stat. § 6.85(1).

4. An absentee ballot shall be issued by the municipal clerk or employees of the clerk, Wise, Stat. § 6.85(3).

5. An absentee ballot shall be accessible to all individuals with disabilities. Wise, Stat. § 6.85(4).

The Election Administration Manual for Wisconsin Municipalities is contrary to the provisions of the Wisconsin Statutes.
Notice of Residence Absentee Voting

Pursuant to the Wisconsin election law, a voter who is unable to vote due to personal incapacity or a natural disaster resulting in a temporary housing displacement shall be entitled to vote absentee. To be entitled to vote absentee, the voter must meet the following eligibility requirements:

1. The voter must be a registered voter in the municipality where the voter resides.
2. The voter must be unable to vote in person due to personal incapacity or a natural disaster resulting in a temporary housing displacement.
3. The voter must provide documentation of the personal incapacity or natural disaster resulting in a temporary housing displacement.

Procedure:

1. The voter must submit a request for an absentee ballot to the municipal clerk. The request must be submitted within 30 days of the election.
2. The municipal clerk shall verify the voter's eligibility and issue an absentee ballot.
3. The voter must return the completed absentee ballot by the deadline established by the municipal clerk.

The Wisconsin Elections Commission (WEC) is authorized to issue this notice of residence absentee voting. This notice is provided for informational purposes only and does not create or imply any legal obligation.

Economist and former professor William Doyle, Ph.D., concluded: "CTCL's spending in Wisconsin caused 65,772 additional Joe Biden votes.

Since Joe Biden's margin of victory in 2020 was 20,692 votes, we conclude with a reasonable degree of scientific certainty that in the absence of CTCL's spending in Wisconsin, Donald Trump would have won Wisconsin by 44,580 votes."
